

Do you need your Functional Skills English Level 2?

Wessex Training and Assessment offer a Functional Skills English Level 2 Award. This award requires you to do 2 exams (reading and writing) and also 2 observations to cover speaking and listening. The observations require you to lead a discussion in a small group.

Here is what you need to do if you would like to go ahead with this award and the process we follow:

Contact the Wessex Training and Assessment Head Office.

Wessex Head Office will register you on BKSB to complete an Initial Assessment/Diagnostic. You will receive your login details via email from BKSB.

Wessex Head Office will provide you with a login to the Wessex Xtras Site, which will have online resources for you to practice.

You need to complete BKSB and do test preparation.

When you feel you are ready to do your test contact Wessex Head Office who will register you with City and Guilds. We will require 2 weeks notice to book your test. You will have the option of sitting the test at the Wessex Head Office or somewhere local to you.

You will sit your test with an assessor present and will be notified of your result by Wessex Head Office once this has been received from City and Guilds.

You will now need to complete your 2 observations for Speaking and Listening. A Wessex assessor will observe Wessex Head Office will order your certificate on completion and this will be posted out to you via Royal Mail Signed for Delivery.

PLEASE NOTE:

You will be invoiced for the cost of the Functional Skills English Level 2 at the start of the process and this will be due in full at the time you are registered with City and Guilds.

If you require additional 1-1 support to help you with your English Level 2, there will be an additional cost.

Please contact us for more information or if you require further help with your English...
